

Private Tastings at Milroys

Milroys enjoys more than half a century of expertise and dedication to the enjoyment of fantastic whiskies. The experience will cover everything from how whisky is made to the science of tasting, debunking some of the industry jargon to make the whiskies accessible to all. The whiskies are tirelessly sourced and tasted to ensure the finest drams are served and enjoyed, the way it was intended. We have a private tasting room, which can hold up to 8 people, with 2 people as the minimum requirement for the experience.

Each tasting will comprise of 5 different whiskies served in 25ml measures, with one of our resident experts guiding you through the expanse that is whisky. It will last between an hour and an hour and a half.

Please email Eddie at eddie@milroys.co.uk for more information.

Types of Tastings

Tastings are personalised to your palate and tastes with the following themes available:

1) Regions of Scotland

Showcasing the varied taste profiles and styles of production from Speyside to Islay and everything in between. Great for the Scotch lovers out there.

2) Around the World

Whisk(e)y is now produced worldwide. This tasting is more adventurous, sampling wares from India, Australia, Taiwan, Japan and many other countries.

3) American

Leading you through the journey of Bourbon, Rye and the newer styles such as Millet whiskey. American whiskey has enjoyed astounding success in recent times due to the quality of products on the market. Let us show you why!

4) Scotland vs World

To show the variety of styles of whisky out there, as the spirit with the most varied flavour profiles on the market, explore the

5) Closed Distilleries

Your chance to experience a piece of whisky history, distilleries that have closed due to the tumultuous history of the whisky market. This tasting will allow you to experience drams that can never be replicated. We will take you through the history of the distilleries and their unique characters that make them such a collectible. This is only available with option 5 below.

NB: This is only available at Dream Dram pricing level, please see below.
