MILROYS®

ESTD SOHO 1964

Corporate Events at Milroys

Milroys enjoys more than half a century of expertise and dedication to the enjoyment of fantastic whiskies. The experience will cover everything from how whisky is made to the science of tasting, debunking some of the industry jargon to make the whiskies accessible to all. The whiskies are tirelessly sourced and tasted to ensure the finest drams are served and enjoyed, the way it was intended. Each tasting will comprise of 5 different whiskies served in 25ml measures, with one of our resident experts guiding you through the expanse that is whisky. The experience will last between 90 minutes and 2 hours.

For corporate events please contact Jolyon at jolyon@milroys.co.uk.

Locations

1) Private Tasting Room at Milroys of Soho

The tasting room can hold up to 8 people comfortably and is situated at the back of the shop and bar.

2) The Vault

Our basement cocktail bar hidden beneath a bookcase. The ideal location to escape the hustle and bustle of Soho, and can be available for cocktails after the tasting event. This location is ideal for groups between 25 and 35 people.

NB: The Vault requires 30 days notice to host and event.

3) At your offices or a location of your choosing

We can offer personalised tastings at your offices or a location of your choosing provided it is agreed beforehand, including the provision of glassware and expert staff.

NB: This will incur an administration and staff charge of £200 within the M25

4) At one of several restaurants in Soho for an evening of pairing whisky and food

After 50 years of trading in Soho, we have some excellent arrangements with local restaurants to hold private events with food pairings. These would include L'Escargot, the Gay Hussar and the Test Kitchen.

Types of Tastings

Tastings are personalised to your palate and tastes with the following themes available:

1) Regions of Scotland

Showcasing the varied taste profiles and styles of production from Speyside to Islay and everything in between. Great for the Scotch lovers out there.

2) Around the World

Whisk(e)y is now produced worldwide. This tasting is more adventurous, sampling wares from India, Australia, Taiwan, Japan and many other countries.

3) American

Leading you through the journey of Bourbon, Rye and the newer styles such as Millet whiskey. American whiskey has enjoyed astounding success in recent times due to the quality of products on the market. Let us show you why!

4) Scotland vs World

To show the variety of styles of whisky out there, as the spirit with the most varied flavour profiles on the market, explore the

5) Closed Distilleries

Your chance to experience a piece of whisky history, distilleries that have closed due to the tumultuous history of the whisky market. This tasting will allow you to experience drams that can never be replicated. We will take you through the history of the distilleries and their unique characters that make them such a collectible.

NB: This is only available at Dream Dram pricing level, please see below.
