

Winonah RTW Spring 2017

Angelenos' laid-back style inspired this collection noised with a summery, feminine vibe.

By Alessandro Turra on September 23, 2016

VIEW GALLERY - 23 PHOTOS

GALLERIES

Collection

For spring, Winonah de Jong was inspired by the laid-back mood of Angelenos — she recently spent about six months in Los Angeles, following her husband, soccer player Nigel de Jong. Relaxed silhouettes were at the core of the lineup, which expressed a joyful sense of both comfort and elegance. A chic pajama set was crafted from bright tangerine silk with white piping, and a roomy jumpsuit featured a sensual cutout on the back. There was a delicate, feminine feel running throughout the show, presented in the lovely garden of the Four Seasons Hotel. Stripes gave a quintessentially summery feel to a bow bandeau top worn with coordinating drawstring pants, while an off-the-shoulder frock in a textured mauve jacquard fabric looked sweet and romantic.

WINONAH RTW SPRING 2017

23 PHOTOS

ESSENTIALIST

— TODAY'S MUST READ —

Estée Lauder Said to Be
Eyeshadow Becca Cosmetics

LATEST GALLERIES

